Lincolnshire Woodcraft Supplies was established in 1989 by Robin Storey, a well known woodturner. Robin has been working with wood since 1968 and sells his work at major shows and craft fairs throughout the country.

Robin is also qualified in furniture making, restoration and French polishing. In 1992 he was invited onto the register of The Worshipful Company of Professional Turners for his quality of Workmanship.

Most of the timber on sale at Lincolnshire Woodcraft Supplies can be seen being worked into a finished article in order to take some of the uncertainty out of buying unfamiliar woods. We are, of, course, always willing to advise.

Each blank is individually machined and labelled. All end grain is waxed to enable the purchaser to clearly see the grain. The price and moisture content is also stated on the timber.

Craft Shows

Robin also attends a number of Craft & Agricultural Shows throughout the UK during the year.

If a show is in your area Robin is happy to bring any timber you require along to the show, but would be grateful for 1 weeks notice.
